14 April 2019 - Palm Sunday

THE SENTENCE FOR TODAY:

Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!
Luke 19:38

COLLECT FOR THE WEEK

Jesus, when you rode into Jerusalem
the people waved palms with shouts of acclamation.
Grant that when the shouting dies
we may still walk beside you even to a cross.
Amen.

TODAY'S READINGS: Psalm 118:1-2,19-29
Luke 19:28-40

Today is Palm Sunday: we celebrate Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem with all the joyful noisiness we can muster. But this is not yet the happy ending: as we prepare to travel through Holy Week, there are dark days ahead. What was in Jesus' mind as he approached Jerusalem? Did he have a plan? And why did he have to die?

TODAY

Welcome to all who are worshipping with us today. You are invited to stay for a cup of tea or coffee at the conclusion of the service.

Graveyard Clean-up

If you are keen to assist with cleaning the graves ready for the unveiling ceremony, and just in case we need to change the day we clean, please text your contact details to Liz Friend, 027 462931.

Suzanne Duncan Chilton Scholarships

An information evening will be held at 7.30pm on Wednesday 1st May, in the Wylie Foyer, St James Church. Attendance is essential for prospective 2019 applicants, renewing students, and caregivers; as it is the sole issue point for application forms. It is also important that existing scholars attend.

St James Organ Recital Sunday 28 April 3pm

David Dobson on the organ

Programme includes music by Guilman, Liszt, Elgar, and others.

- Cleaning gravestones Sat 20th Apr 1pm
- Catering finger food for unveiling event for Mon 22 April.

As we journey through the season of Lent, we invite you to make Bible Reading a part of your daily routine. Some people are receiving daily email reflections to help them engage with the Gospel reading for each day. But even without that extra reflection, you can make space to simply read, reflect in silence, and then ponder how God is speaking to you – in the words from scripture and in your daily life.
